Oneida County Local Development Corporation

2012 Year in Review

Board of Directors Annual Meeting
December 14, 2012
OCLDC continues its significant role in spurring economic development in Oneida County and the Mohawk Valley.
The purpose of the resolution was to create a local development corporation (LDC) as a means to finance “civic facility projects” with tax-exempt bonds.

2012 Projects

No projects